INTRODUCTION.

The addition of a large number of pamphlets to the Library of the Archives since 1904 has rendered the catalogue published in that year inadequate as a work of reference. At that time the pamphlets were bound together in groups. It has since been thought advisable to break these volumes and to bind each pamphlet separately. They have been arranged in chronological order and have been numbered as indicated in the catalogue.

In this catalogue the exact title of each pamphlet or report, excepting the epigraph, is given. Where the epigraph is of unusual length it has been abbreviated. In the selection of pamphlets considerable latitude has been taken; many volumes will be found which will exceed the size usually attributed to a pamphlet. In each case, however, the importance of the volume has been considered as sufficient justification for its mention. Likewise in the list of government reports only those dealing with special subjects have been included. The list has not been designed to serve as a Blue Book Catalogue, hence the regular annual reports of the various public departments have not been mentioned. The index includes references to the author and the chief subjects of each volume.

The volume has been prepared by Mr. McArthur of the Archives Branch.

Nulle puissance humaine ne peut forcer le retranchement impénétrable de la liberté du cœur. La force ne peut jamais persuader les hommes; elle ne fait que des hypocrites. Quand les Rois se mêlent de la Religion, au lieu de la protéger, ils la mettent en servitude. Accordez donc à tous la tolérance civile, non en approuvant tout comme indifférent, mais en souffrant avec patience tout ce que Dieu souffre, et en tâchant de ramener les hommes par une douce persuasion.

1334. The Future of British America. INDEPENDENCE! HOW TO PREPARE FOR IT. Consolidation is Preparation for a New Nation: Confederation is Preparation for Annexation.
It would appear that every motive that has induced the union of various Provinces into a single state exists for the consolidation of these Colonies under a common legislature and executive.—Lord Durham.
I nevertheless leave you with every hope that the unity of all the British Provinces will be a great fact.
I think those legislators will at last come to the right conclusion, and that unity and strength will take the place of division and weakness. This unity bears with greater weight upon the defences of those vast Colonies than it does on the commercial advantages, which are in themselves obvious and most important.—Sir W. F. Williams.
The simple question to be determined is: shall the Constitution of the United Provinces of British America be formed after the model afforded us by the constitution of the United Kingdoms or that of the United States?
